Further information on the Trust:
We provide mental health, social care and substance misuse services to adults of working age, adults with learning difficulties and older people in the London area. We deliver services to a combined population of 420,000 in our two main boroughs Camden & Islington, as well as additional services in the surrounding boroughs. We treat 97% of people in the community and work hard to reduce the need for hospital admissions. We aim to provide all our users with a warm welcome throughout their journey to recover.
