Further Information
Placements are based at St Peter's Hospital and will be between the July and August. The hours you will be expected to work are 9am-5.30pm Monday to Friday, for the full two weeks. The placement is unpaid and we cannot refund travel expenses, please look into commuting to St Peters Hospital (KT16 0PZ) if you feel this may be a problem prior to applying. There is onsite accommodation available (for which you will be charged) and you must apply for this before starting the placement- there is no guarantee that accommodation will be granted however past applicants have always been successful. The training provided will be a mixture of ward specialities and the dispensary.
